*To you,
the participant in this golf tournament,*

As the Houston Lutheran Campus Ministry (HLCM) pastor, I thank you for supporting and praying for this crucial and vital ministry to the students, faculty, and staff of Rice University, the University of Houston, and the Texas Medical Center.

Through your golf tournament participation and donations, you are supporting a campus ministry that welcomes all students. You are supporting a ministry that helps students discern God's presence as they wrestle with big questions, worthy dreams, and God's call in their lives. You are supporting a ministry that develops students' leadership skills and encourages healthy and life-giving relationships. Through your participation in this golf tournament you are helping me and the HLCM student leaders further God's message of grace and promise revealed in Jesus Christ. Bible studies, meals off campus and at the pastor's home, spring break mission trips, peer minister stipends, participation in the Lutheran Student Movement Gathering, and frequent pizza delivery are all activities that comprise this ministry. Our vision is to expand this ministry to include Texas Southern University and the call of an additional campus pastor within the next 5 years. All of this takes financial support. So thank you. Thank you for supporting a ministry that disciples young lives and grows Christ's Church.

*Grace and peace to you!
Pr. Brad Fuerst
